M'ADOO RESIGNS AS MEMBER OF CABINET OF PRESIDENT WILSON

Washington, Nov. 23.—William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, director general of railroads and often discussed as one of the presidential possibilities of 1920, has resigned his office to return to private business.

President Wilson has accepted his resignation. Mr McAdoo will give up the treasury portfolio as soon as a successor has been selected. He wished to lay down his work as director general of railroads by January 1, but will remain if the President has not then chosen a successor.

Upon the new secretary of treasury, whoever he may be, will devolve the task of financing the nation through the transition period of war to peace, which probably will include at least two more Liberty loans and possibly further revision of the system of war taxation.

Letters between President Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, made public with the announcement of the resignation, give Mr. McAdoo's reasons for leaving the cabinet solely as a necessity for replenishing his personal fortune and express the President's deep regret at losing his son-in-law from his official family.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Secretary McAdoo himself and his closest friends stood pat today on his original declaration that he is leaving the treasury and railroad posts for just the reason he stated—and for that alone—to retrieve his fortune.

Resigning these two important posts, McAdoo declared late yesterday he needed to get to private life to make sufficient money for family needs. He pointed out that his energy was drained though his health has not fully broken.

There was a crop of rumors to "explain" his going.

The first was that there had been a split with the President, as there was in the case of ex-Secretary of State Bryan and ex-Secretary of War Garrison. The statements of McAdoo's friends, however, did not bear out this theory as most authorities here saw it.

Secondly there was speculation that the presidency in 1920, had an influence in McAdoo's direction.

Some thought McAdoo was skeptical of being a successful candidate in 1920, inasmuch as his continuance in office might be attended by political differences with the opposition party next year over railroads and appropriations.

On the other hand some believed that McAdoo felt that by avoiding these differences he could appear in 1920 as a government control advocate and be swept into office on that plank and his past record.

The general thought was, however, that McAdoo has quit public life as he said. There were those who believe this, were inclined to think McAdoo had drawn an advanced decision as to his personal prospects in 1920, from the Republican victory in the last election.

Coupled with speculation over what might have been the background reason for his sudden remarkable decision was talk of who would succeed McAdoo. Bernard Baruch, Carter Glass, of Virginia, and Assistant Secretary Laffingwell, were mentioned as prospects for the treasury post.

Baruch also was prominently discussed as railroad administrator while there was considerable thought that the railroads might be placed under Secretary of the Interior Lane.

McAdoo did not acquaint his immediate associates of his purposes until late yesterday afternoon, a short time before he called in the press to announce his resignation and its acceptance. He gave out correspondence, which said the need for more money than a cabinet posts yields, influenced his going.

President Wilson answered that he regretfully accepted, at the same time highly praising the secretary's faithfulness and ability.

McAdoo did not claim to be broken in health though he did suggest he is much in need of a rest. It was recalled today that he spent some time on a western ranch recently because of

TWENTY MORE U-BOATS ARE SURRENDERED

London, November 23.—Twenty more German submarines were surrendered to Admiral Sir Reginald Tywhitt, off Harwich, yesterday.

This makes a total of 50 submarines thus far handed over. There would have been 21 surrendered but one sank during the night.

The correspondent of the Wireless Service, with the British naval forces, says that just before noon a cruiser came into sight, followed by the German submarines and a German transport. The transfer took place in the harbor on account of the heavy sea running.

The majority of the submarines were large, and nearly all were fitted with wireless equipment.

When the Germans arrived it was noticeable that the revolutionary element was decidedly present. Some of the officers had removed the Prussian eagle from their caps and replaced them with a sort of red badge that recognizes the authority of the Sailors' and Soldiers' Council.

There seemed to be little discipline among the lot. The men took very little notice of anything their officers said to them. One shouted: "No officer, no kaiser!"

LIEGE SOON TO BE BACK IN THE HANDS OF ALLIES

London, Nov. 23.—The last important city in Belgium to be repatriated, Liege, is expected soon to be in allied hands. The British were last reported within less than twenty miles of that place. They have passed through Namur.

(Liege is 45 miles east and south of Brussels and only 8 miles from the Prussian frontier. It is where the first great battle of the war was fought. General Leman defending it until his forces were reduced by the German howitzer.)

Occupation of Luxembourg is rapidly being completed by the Americans, who are nearing Rheinisch Prussia. The French already have a foothold in the latter provinces, at Sarrebrücken and have entered Saargemund near the junction of the boundaries of Rheinisch Prussia and Rheinisch Bavaria.

The general line of the allied advance, according to latest advices is as follows:

Arendoneck, Molt, west of Diest, (Belgium); west of Ambresinbe, west of Andenne, line of the Ourthe, (British); Bastogne, French; west of Diekirch, east of Luxembourg (Americans); east of Thionville, Saarbrücken, Saargemund, Lutzelstein, Hochfelden, Obernay, Marckolsheim, line of the Rhine to the Swiss frontier (French).

PRESIDENT MAKES APPEARANCE ON THE STAGE AT ARMY SHOW

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Wilson made a stage appearance here last night in a farewell frolic by quartermaster department divisions.

When composer Sergeant Irving sang for the first time his new song, "Good-Bye France," the president came on the stage with a hand on the shoulder of a French and of an American sergeant. With the audience cheering wildly, President Wilson then grasped the hands of the two men, in one of the greatest finales of an impromptu show ever staged in the nation's capital.

PROCLAMATION IS ISSUED BY GOVERNOR

Columbus, Nov. 23.—"That peace has come to the world after a bitter period of frightful disorder, is cause enough for unrestrained gratitude to the giver of all good gifts," says Governor Cox in his Thanksgiving proclamation issued today.

"I respectfully urge that the people of the state observe the twenty-eighth day of November next as Thanksgiving day. Let us all cease from our ordinary labors, and in our homes, in public assembly, and in our places of worship, give thanks and offer prayer for continuance of blessings."

BELGIAN KING SEES DAYS OF HORROR END AND HE RETURNS TO HIS CAPITAL

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM.

King Albert of Belgium was forced for four long years to stand by and see the country of which he the head devastated by the Germans—to see the women and children violated and murdered. No one grieved more than the king. But thanks to the allies the Germans are beaten and the blood soaked fields of Belgium are now nearly free of the murderous German hordes. King Albert yesterday re-entered his capital amid the shouts of joy of his people.

ANOTHER WRONG DONE BY HUNS TO BE RIGHTED

Washington, Nov. 23.—Freedom for Schleswig-Holstein, taken from Denmark by Germany in 1866, will be one of the specific demands of President Wilson at the peace table.

Answering the call of native Danes, both in Schleswig and in the United States, the president has assured these people that the wrong done them by Germany in 1866 shall be righted. The president's position was outlined in a letter made public today, replying to a petition recently presented by American citizens from Schleswig-Holstein, and others of Danish descent.

"I can but assure you that your appeal to America's sympathy and passion for justice will not go unheeded, for it finds itself wisely upon the rights of men to rule themselves, and to choose the manner in which that self rule shall be exercised," wrote the president.

"Not America alone, but all the people now quickened to a new sense of the value of justice, must join in the relief of a grievance whose continuance would traverse the principles for which more than a score of nations are fighting."

The president's position on Schleswig-Holstein was determined upon by him, with this country's entrance into the war. About a year ago, the United States was authorized to state semi-officially that the president was committed to four fundamental positions in the west:

Return of Alsace-Lorraine; destruction of the kaiser's power; the freedom of Schleswig-Holstein; the complete righting of the German wrong done Belgium and Northern France.

There was considerable talk today about the possibility of the president giving up his trip to Europe as a result of Secretary McAdoo's resignation from the treasury and railroad administration, and the general uncertainty of re-adjustment work within the government.

The president's friends, however, said he knew of McAdoo's intentions long ago and that there would be no alteration in his plans.

Announcement of the American peace delegation is expected immediately.

DEMobilIZATION AT CAMP SHERMAN BEGINS SATURDAY

Chillicothe, Ohio, Nov. 23.—Saturday morning at 8 o'clock 500 men, disappointed at not being able to get a crack at the Hun, but proud of the fact that they were on the job and ready to perform any duty assigned to them, assembled at the office of the Finance Department at Camp Sherman, received their pay and honorable discharge, then started for their respective homes, to return to civil life.

The movement was the beginning of the demobilization of the various units in camp. From day to day there will be further movements until 12,000 men, the first contingent ordered discharged by the War Department, have been returned to their homes.

Every soldier discharged will be allowed to retain one service coat and ornaments, one pair of breeches, one overcoat, one hat, one flannel shirt, one pair of leggings and all used stockings and underwear.

The clothing, shoes, etc., can be retained by the soldiers for a period of four months, when it must be returned to the camp Quartermasters' Department by mail under a franked label which will be furnished.

Action on the part of the government in allowing discharged soldiers to retain one complete outfit is for the purpose of lessening the immediate demand upon clothing establishments for civilian clothes, thus allowing them time to replenish their stocks.

MARSHAL PETAIN COMING TO U.S.

GERMAN OFFICER SAYS AMERICA WAS DECIDING FACTOR

BY WEBB MILLER.

With the Americans Advancing Toward the Rhine, Nov. 23.—(10:50 A. M.)—The first and second divisions of the American army are within a few miles of Prussian territory.

If the advance continues at the present pace, they will set foot in Germany before this evening.

General Pershing has issued the following proclamation to the people of Luxembourg:

"After four years of violence, Luxembourg happily has been liberated. Your liberty was demanded of the invaders by the Americans and the allies as one of the conditions of the armistice.

"It becomes necessary now for the Americans to pass through Luxemburg and establish and maintain for a time a line of supply. The Americans come as friends and will conduct themselves strictly according to international law. Their presence will not be prolonged any longer than is strictly necessary. The functions of your government and institutions will not be interfered with; your life, occupations and personal welfare will not be troubled and will be respected.

"It is necessary that the American army shall utilize certain utilities, such as railways, telegraphs and telephones, for which you will be reimbursed, according to a just appraisal. It is presumed you will not allow any act of aggression against the Americans and will give no information nor aid in giving any information to their enemies."

TWO THOUSAND PERISH IN A BIG EXPLOSION

London, Nov. 23.—An explosion of munition trains at the station of Hamont, in Belgium, Thursday caused casualties estimated to be between 1,500 and 2,000. One hundred and fifty dead already have been counted, according to a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam. The injured are being taken to Budel, Holland.

It is reported that the cause of the blast was a bonfire built by children, which spread to two German munition trains nearby.

The destruction in the vicinity, the dispatch adds, was enormous. Assistance is being sent to the stricken region from all directions. Dutch military aid has been sent across the border.

The trains were standing at the station at Hamont when the explosion occurred and the entire region was soon a sea of fire. Neighboring houses collapsed, burying their occupants. Three German ambulance trains caught fire and one was destroyed, 18 of the occupants being burned to death.

Most of the victims were German soldiers, who had been plundering the trains. A few Dutch soldiers also were killed.

New York, Nov. 23.—Suit against the government is planned by Clarence H. Mackey, president of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, if a merger of the Company and Western Union, is planned, he announced today.

AMERICAN MANUFACTURERS ARE IN FAVOR OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

New York, Nov. 23.—American manufacturers are heartily in favor of the proposed league of nations for the future war in life and property.

But according to President Stephen Mason, of the manufacturers they do not believe it practical for the nations of the world to enter into any general agreement relative to commercial intercourse.

President Mason today explained that in the production of manufactured products there is such a wide difference of conditions among the nations of the world there can be no "practical method of equaling so diverse interests," in the field of world trade.

Speaking of the manufacturers viewpoint of the league of nations, President Mason said:

"If the proposed league of nations directly involves agreements in detail among the nations of the world relative to commercial intercourse, the practical nature of such an enormous task is seriously open to question."

"Any effort to involve the Americans in a trade future in an agreement of all nations from the American manufacturers' point of view is the same as committing our trade resources to a plan of world socialism which can only be regarded as an imaginary ideal."

"I am glad it is over, but I am sorry it ended this way," Schmidt said. "The Americans were the deciding factor in the war."

"They are good fighters. I have fought against them and know."

Before going, Schmidt thanked the French women, with whom they had been billeted, then saluted the Americans, and rode away to a chorus of "good luck!" from the Americans.

BREWERS HELPED FINANCE GERMAN-AMERICAN ALLIANCE

Washington, Nov. 23.—Additional records from the private files of the United States Brewers' Association showing methods adopted in the organization's efforts to combat the prohibition movement were read into the record of the senate investigating committee by Major E. Lawry James, who is in charge of the inquiry.

These records dealt with the organization and financing of the National Association of Commerce and Labor, disbursement to the German-American Alliance, the employment of special writers for beer propaganda and a suggestion to Hugh F. Fox, secretary of the association, that the brewers offer a prize for the best essay on the solution of the "saloon problem" with the co-operation of newspapers as a medium of publicity. The Hearst papers were suggested in this connection.

SONG DEFINING
TRUE HEROISM

OLD HIT CALLED "IT'S NEVER TOO LATE TO BE SORRY."

A new song has just appeared which bids fair to rival many of the modern love tales. It is called "It's Never Too Late to Be Sorry" and is a tribute to women's loyalty and resignation and her fidelity for the man she has chosen.

Some of the lines of the song are quite poetical. One verse runs:
"I watched a sweet rose droop and die
for want of rain, and wondered why.
The raindrops when at last they came
Could not restore its bloom again.
You're like the rose; I'm like the rain—
You wanted me and called in vain."
And then follows the music which seems to be really catchy.

It's Never Too Late To
Be Sorry

The various photographs and music rolls are hurrying the song out as a mid-winter novelty, while the orchestra are using the melody both as a one-step and waltz. Adv.

YELLOW SPRINGS
AND MIAMI TOWNSHIP
ARE OVER THE TOP

Yellow Springs and Miami township have exceeded their quota in United War Work Campaign.

Subscriptions received so far, not including the contributions of the schools, have reached $3,301.25. This sum is divided as follows: Yellow Springs, $2,088; Miami township, west, $837; Miami township, east, $376.25.
Miami township east, workers say that their territory was encroached by Clark county, thus lessening the sum which would have been derived from that district.

The quota of Yellow Springs and Miami township was $3,100.

FUNERAL SERVICES
FOR MRS. B. HUNT

Funeral services for Mrs. Bowman Hunt were held at the home on Trumbull street, Friday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. William Enzer and the Rev. James Wotherspoon of Dayton. Rev. Enzer sang "O My Father-er," and Mrs. H. E. Lane rendered
"I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go,
Dear Lord," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

Burial was made in Woodland cemetery. Brief committal service was held at the grave.

The Rev. Clarence A. Young, of Boston, Mass., is visiting relatives in this county.

Arthur Beal, of near Goes, is in Col-

Pepsinco
Stomach Trouble Can Be Cured!

Thousands upon thousands say that Pepsinco is the only thing
that helped their stomach. Many remedies gave temporary relief,
but with Pepsinco the help was so different. It was lasting. Pepsinco did its work thoroughly. In many cases a few days' treatment
was all that was necessary.
The pain left.
It is really surprising how many druggists not only sell and recommend Pepsinco, but take it themselves. They have so many customers tell of the good it has done them, that it is hard to resist the temptation to take it themselves.
A druggist in Indiana says
he sells more Pepsinco than all the other stomach remedies put together.

BIG INCREASE
IN THEIR PAY

Washington, Nov. 23.—Trainmen of the Cincinnati Traction Company have been awarded an increase of 43 cents per hour the first three months; 46 cents the next nine months, and 48 cents thereafter, by the war labor board.

Existing working conditions and differentials paid for special service shall be continued.

All employees shall receive not less than 42 1-2 cents per hour, for not more than a ten hour day. Women The company will be allowed until doing the same work as men shall receive equal pay.

FORTIETH ANNUAL SESSION OF WOMAN'S
SOCIETY IS HELD

The Women's Missionary society of Xenia Presbytery held its 40th annual convention in the First United Presbyterian Church, this city, on Thursday, with Miss Lulu Henderson of Cedarville, presiding.

Mrs. D. D. Dodds, of Xenia, conducted opening devotionals. The adoption of a new constitution was one important item of business.

The treasurer reported over $4,400 gain during the year. A thankoffering of $1,662 was collected in the afternoon. A shower of $114 was given to buy fruits and jellies for hospitals, old ladies and orphans' homes under the church's care.

Mrs. George Moore of this city has been the efficient treasurer of the Presbytery for twenty-nine years. As an appreciation of her loving service, the president, in behalf of the society, presented her with a reading lamp and stand, a comfortable rocker, and a Victrola record. Mrs. Moore, very much surprised, thanked the ladies in her pleasing manner.

An expression of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Sarah Reid of Springfield, who has been confined to hospital for weeks.

TYPHOID FEVER
CLAIMS ANOTHER
VICTIM IN FAMILY

Typhoid fever claimed a second victim in the same family, when Mrs. Flora E. Johnson, wife of Marion Johnson of 625 West Second street, died at the Espey hospital at 12:15 Friday afternoon. Her 13 year-old daughter, Helen, died of the same malady two weeks ago Friday, and her death which occurred in the same hospital, had a depressing effect upon her mother, and lessened her chances for recovery.

Mrs. Johnson was 46 years of age and leaves six children: William, Hattie and James Johnson, and three sons by a previous marriage, Fred, Cecil and Leo Hedrick of New Vienna, who were with their mother when she died. The body is at the office of J. H. Naeley, the undertaker, on Gibson street.

Friends may call at the undertaking office between 6:30 and 8:30 Saturday evening. The body will be taken to New Vienna for interment, and the funeral will be held there on Sunday afternoon.

O. S. AND S. O. HOME

A hunting party composed of Messrs O. T. Sheets, L. L. Anger, Charles Broel, T. R. Ferguson, W. T. Lewis, went to the farm of Isaiah Mason, near Painesville, Saturday afternoon, and bagged 8 rabbits as follows: Lewis, 4; Anger 3; Sheets, 1.

Says the Ohio Chronicle: "Mr. John Dellinger left last Saturday morning to accept a position as fireman under Chief Engineer Dyma at the Xenia Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home. A recent letter from him to Henry Hartard tells him that he is well pleased with his position and surroundings."

Kenneth Lawrence and Paul Erickson were the only members of the band who played the "O.S."

Mrs. Patricia Banerle, household manager, left Saturday for a week's vacation. Mrs. Ghorman, who has charge of the milk room, is substituting.

Home residents saw the second official war film, "America's Answer," shown at the channel last Friday night. The film was presented by Charles S. Hart, a former pupil, who is director of the U. S. Department of Film Distribution, New York. The pictures showed the colossal preparation of our country in prosecuting the Great World War on a scale such as never dreamed of by any nation in the history of the world.

The cementing department made and put on three new doors for the old industrial building.

Miss Margaret Ross, ex-pupil, is at Monette Springs, near Delaware, O., taking the rest cure.

HOW A SALESMAN SUFFERED

R. J. Porter, Sterling, Col., writes: "I suffered with a painful, weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, and the pain when I straightened up was awful. I was induced to try Foley Kidney Pills. Relief was immediate. Say, they are great." Prompt and tonic. Sayre & Hemphill, adv

BALANCE NEEDED
TO PUT FUND OVER
DIMINISHES SLOWLY

Just $251.27 more added to subscriptions for the United War Work, will put Xenia city in the list of the communities which have contributed their quota for this cause.

Xenia's share in the county's general quota was fixed at $12,500, and while the response to the call has been spontaneous and generous from nearly every quarter there are dozens of people in the city who have not contributed their share.

The United War Work Committee would like to have Xenia exceed her quota, and while it is working to put the city "over the top," it is hoped that there will be a wide margin on the other side of the top, represented by increased subscriptions from those who are able to give more than they have contributed.

RESULTS ALONE COUNT
What is said below by worth-while men—Bankers and Live-stock Experts—is said about Results, not Prospects

"Passed by the Capital Issues Committee as not incompatible with the national interests, but without approval of legality, validity, worth or security. Opinion No. A-434."

J. J. Logan, President of The United States Trust & Savings Bank, of Jacksonville, Fla., says:

time for his friends to offer congratulations.

I had been over your farm before the Fair opened and I knew you would make an excellent showing and give any of your competitors a stiff battle, but I believe that you have made bigger winnings than any individual or any farm has ever made at any Fair held in this State.

As one of the members of the Executive Committee of the State Fair, I want to say that I think you are entitled to the victory because you have done such a very great deal to develop the hog and cattle industry in this State and your good example will bear fruit year after year.

At the present rate of progress, Florida is going to be the biggest hog and cattle State in the Union, and I predict that when this time comes, you will still be winning cups and ribbons.

H. B. Minium, for Eleven Years State Superintendent of Armour & Co., with Headquarters at Jacksonville, Fla., says:

making a great success in farming and live stock raising and that your success in your Clay County venture will mean more to the general development of farming and live stock raising in Florida than any other single factor. I regard your farms as a sort of demonstration farms, showing what can be done in Florida in the way of general farming and live stock raising, and, with your permission, I am going to encourage as many of our Florida farmers and stock raisers as possible; as well as prospective investors, to visit your farms and see for themselves just what can be done."

Bion H. Barnett, President of The Barnett National Bank, of Jacksonville, Fla., says:

winning the President's Cup and other valuable trophies. My personal inspection of your farms has shown me that you were entitled to the victory because the exhibit at the State Fair is truly representative of the cattle and hogs on the farms.

I feel that you are entitled to a word of credit, and as we are deeply interested in the progress of the State, I feel it a duty to send you a word of congratulation."

"When one farm wins the President's cup and two other important cups, bronze medal and seventeen ribbons at the Florida State Fair, we think it is ever since DeSoto landed at Tampa Bay with 500 pigs nearly 400 years ago, it remained for an Ohio man to discover the real live stock potentialities of this State.

The Columbus (Ohio) "Dispatch" says, in a Special Feature Article From Jacksonville, Fla.:

And, compared with the discovery and exploitation of the health-giving climate of Florida by the railroad building genius, Flagler, or with the discovery of the food and tonic values of grapefruit by Mrs. Frank Leslie, of publishing fame, that of the undeveloped live stock possibilities of this State by R. L. Dollings, of Ohio, must be admitted to have a greater capacity for usefulness."

Jay R. Brown, Secretary of The Illinois Live Stock Association, said, in an Address at the Ohio State University:

States. . . . The South and Southeastern country will be a breeding ground to which we of the North will look for our feeders. They will fatten a fair percentage of their output, and sell the balance in the North as feeders. Along with it, they will develop the velvet-bean meal business to an extent which will likely substitute in no small measure the present business of cotton-seed meal manufacture and sale. The big interests of the North have had their eyes at the Southeastern country for a long time."

Ed. S. Foust, of Xenia, O., Breeder of the Grand Champion Duroc Boar of the United States, says:

visit is the first time I have returned to see the property. The development is marvelous; I would not have believed it had I not seen it with my own eyes.

I am a farmer in Ohio—have 300 acres—and I flatter myself that I know something about hogs, having bred the Grand Champion Duroc Boar of the United States; and you turned me loose on the farms and told me to go and look them over with the hog men and the cattle men and the farmers, and I want to say to you that I never saw better corn, and the hogs that you have on the place would do credit to any farm in the North.

The whole State is on fire, and it is very evident that Florida will swing into the line as one of the largest producing States in the Union in cattle and hogs. You started it all and you are reaping the reward."

Final Offering of the 7% Full Participating Preferred Stock of The Walkill Stock Farms Co.

To pay the 7% to the Preferred Stockholders requires an earning of only $2.00 an acre and to pay the 7% to both the PREFERRED and the COMMON STOCKHOLDERS requires an earning of only $3.00 an acre; and the man who THINKS will understand what this PARTICIPATING feature means.

There are one hundred good farmers in every county in Ohio who can take this fertile 14,000 acre farm, with the long pasture season (practically eleven months), the ability of the farm to produce good corn and cheap ensilage and other forage crops with which to feed Cattle, Hogs and Sheep, and earn $10.00 an acre and not regard that as the maximum by any manner of means.

There is one sure way to share in the profits of the most tremendous Live Stock development that has ever taken place in this country and which is going on today in the South, and that is to buy a PARTICIPATING PREFERRED STOCK, backed by Land, Cattle, Hogs and Sheep. Most of the WALKILL PREFERRED STOCK has been sold. If you are interested, write today.

It will be a glorious Thanksgiving.

It is time to sing the doxology with fervor.This war has been fatal to autocratic dynasties.It is a solemn hour. God is moving in human events.Nothing so became William Hohenzollern as abdication.And Christmas once more will be the gladdest holiday it should be.Ferdinand Foch stands peer to all the great military captains of history.William II of Germany should go down in history as William the Accursed.After the darkness of war, the sunshine of peace; after the anguish unspeakable, the joy inexpressible.Those who went down on the Lusitania—horrible crime it was that sent them to death—did not die in vain.The world has witnessed its last great war. Let's have faith to believe this and courage to strive to make it true.If there ever were godless dynasties that deserved to be swept into oblivion
they were the houses of Hohenzollern
and Hapsburg.Germany now drinks its bitter cup of rue because it permitted itself
blindly to be mastered by militarists and kaiserists.The glory of America in this war is not alone its might, but its unselfishness, its disinterestedness, its honor and its chivalry.Don't overlook the fact that it was the irresistible sword arm of the embattled hosts of freemen which forced kaiserism to its knees.Do not forget God in the hour of victory and jubilation. Offer a prayer of praise and thanksgiving to the Almighty for this supernatural blessing.When we remember how dark the war cloud loomed only a year ago, and
how bright the lining is today, our thanksgiving to God should be very fervent.Ah, what a happy day that will be
"when Johnny comes marching home."
Nothing will be too good for him. We will feel for him.Bleeding France will rise in new glory upon the ruins of its appalling sacrifices to the invader. America will take the sister republic gently by the hand and assist her to rehabilitate.Germany stands today without a real friend in all the world—the sor-riest spectacle ever witnessed. It is a fearful but a deserved penalty befalling it for its upholding of and commence in the high crimes of kaiserism.Peace, peace, blessed peace. Our beloved Gen. Grant said: "Although a soldier by profession, I have never felt fondness for war, and I have never advocated it, except as a means of peace."A prediction that came true to the letter 150 years after made. Said Baron Montesquieu, a French philosopher,
who died in Paris in 1755—"If Europe should ever be ruined it will be by its warriors."All hail the proposed "League of Nations to Enforce Peace," and let its mailed first be a strong one. If we had had such a league four years ago, when the Hun first invaded Belgium, he could have been hurled back with a black eye, and many millions of lives
and many billions of dollars saved.Glory, hallelujah, that we are soon to see the list of the "Honor Rolls" of our brave boys who "gave the last full measure of devotion that government
of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth. It is for us, the living, to be dedicated to the work they so nobly carried on."

"THE WIFE"

By JANE PHELPS

BRIAN REFUSES TO MAKE UP,
THOUGH RUTH BEGS
HIM TO.

CHAPTER XCVI.

In the midst of Ruth's misery there was projected the thought of her employer's kindness and thoughtfulness. For the first time there crossed her mind something like a wish that Brian was more like him. Mandel was so dependable, and Brian so erratic. How she hated that crowd which were, in her thoughts, represented by Mollie King and Claude Beckly. She blamed them for Brian's defection, for all his unstable ways, instead of blaming Brian himself.

It was getting late. Where had Brian gone? Would he return that night, or was he so angry he would do as he had the night before, and remain out? Finally Ruth's sobs were quieted. She, too, began to get angry. If Brian were going to treat her like this, she would not be so careful in the future not to hurt him. She rose, took a hot bath, then went to bed. Hardly had she crept between the sheets when she heard his key in the door. She would pretend to be asleep. He could think then that she was as indifferent as he. So when he spoke, she pretended not to hear, even when he sighed so deeply that she wanted to ask him what it meant. She hoped he was sighing because he was sorry they weren't good friends, but she wasn't going to risk another snub, so she kept her eyes closed.

The next morning she made up her mind to try to act as if nothing had happened. Brian had explained where he was the night she came home, and she knew that down in his heart he knew that she loved him, also that he knew her coming home in Mandel's car meant nothing. She never thought of doubting HIM. Neither that he might not accept HER explanation in the same spirit.

"Hurry, Brian, breakfast is nearly ready," she called as she hurried into the kitchen, to see what Rachel had for breakfast.

When he sat down with her a few moments later, she saw that he had not recovered his good nature; that he was still grouchy. She sighed a little as she poured his coffee, and tried to get him to tell her what news was in the paper.

"You can read. Look for yourself," he gave her a part of the paper.

"Oh, isn't the war news dreadful? Why, this article reads as if something might happen to drag us into it. Then after a minute—'Here's another one. All on our preparedness, rather unpreparedness. Why, Brian, think what it would mean to us if anything should happen. This country, I mean. We are 3,000 miles away. We couldn't get a large army across. It would be impossible.'"

"Nothing is impossible to Uncle Sam," his tone gruff.

"But we haven't ships, means of transportation, and we have no drilled soldiers ready to fight, like the other countries."

"It's a disgrace that we haven't," he went on eating. Ruth was almost discouraged, trying to make up with him. (Even talking of the war in which he had always been so interested, would not make him pleasant to her. He was more hurt than she knew.)

"How long are those Canadian soldiers going to be here?" she tried again.

"I haven't asked them."

"It was awfully discouraging. Her lip quivered as she took the cup he held out to her and refilled it. Even the fact, trivial as it was, that he always said something about the coffee being good and this morning said nothing, hurt her.

"Do be nice, Brian," she said as she passed back the cup. I shall be unhappy all day if you are not."

"I see no reason why I should be nice to you. Mandel will probably see that you are taken care of."

"Oh, Brian, you silly boy!" she realized that he was still thinking of Mandel's courtesy of the day before.

"I'm sorry I let him send me home, dear. But I really was ill. He has offered to many times before, but I always refused. You made me ill by staying out all night," she said more heatedly. "It was your fault that I felt so badly I was willing to accept the favor, not mine!"

"That's right! Try and save your own face by throwing the blame on someone else. Ride in Mandel's cars all you want to! I knew it would come to that when you went to work for him. I'm not a fool, neither am I glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord."

"Oh, Brian!" Ruth said again as he flung from the table, and started for the hall. "Aren't you going to kiss me, dear? You haven't, you know, since I came home."

"Mandel has most likely made up my deficiencies."

The door closed after him upon the last word. Ruth laid her head on the table and cried as if her heart would break. Mammy Rachel could give her no comfort. She was sure she had lost Brian, and could not feel herself at fault. She telephoned the shop she was too ill to work.

PLAN TO ORGANIZE A COMMUNITY CLUB

Plans to organize a Community club were discussed at a meeting of people living in the Richland neighborhood. Spring Valley township, which was held at Richland school, Friday evening.

County Agent Ford S. Prince was present and he gave a talk on the plans of the Farm Bureau.

It was decided to call another meeting for December 10, to further discuss the proposed Community club.

FROM OSCAR PRICE

After a ten days vacation spent at his home here the first part of November, Lieut. Oscar W. Price, returned to duty at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga. In a recent note from him he says:

"Hardly think I'll be in the army much longer now for according to recent orders received at this camp quite a number of officers and enlisted men are to be discharged within a short while. So it may be possible for me to eat Christmas dinner at home this year.

I wouldn't give anything for the experience and training I have received in the army during the time I have been in the service. It has fitted me for almost any kind of job and I don't think I'll have any trouble in securing a position on my return to civil life."

BELLBROOK

Mrs. Andrew Belt is suffering from the influenza.

Miss Gladis Turner is reported some better today.

Mrs. Allen Davis returned home from Dayton Thursday, where she spent a week among relatives.

BAVARIA MAY CUT
LOOSE FROM GERMANY

Copenhagen, Nov. 22.—The separatist movement in Bavaria against dictatorship is growing. It was stated in advices received here today.

Formation of an independent republic in Bavaria is said to be likely.

MILLIONAIRE ARMY
OFFICER IS MODEST

Chicago, Nov. 22.—A modest millionaire was Lieut. Patrick J. Sexton Jr., today. Reaching 24 years of age, he came into a million dollars left in trust by his father.

"There isn't a thing I can think of about myself that would interest the public," he insisted, overlooking the million.

"And my only plans for the present are those of Uncle Sam's army."

HEROIC EFFORT MADE
TO SAVE FREIGHTER

New York, Nov. 22.—Heroic efforts were being made today to save the steel freighter, Carib, which is aground off Point Lookout, L. I.

Throughout the night the crew was engaged in throwing the steamer's cargo of baled cork overboard.

FIGHT BEGINS ON GOVERNMENT RAIL WAY OWNERSHIP

New York, Nov. 23.—The fight against government control of railroads appears to have been launched today with announcement by the National Association of Owners of Railroad securities that they had retained counsel to look after the interests of bondholders and stockholders in the return of the railroads by the government to private control.

Elihu Root has been retained as advisory counsel and will be associated with John D. Milburn, of New York, John S. Miller, Chicago, Forney Johnson of Birmingham, Ala., and Hugh L. Bond of Baltimore.

Luther B. Walter, who for some time has been one of Director W. G. McAdoo's chief assistants, also has been appointed as general counsel in association with Samuel Untermyer and B. N. Innes, Brown, of Hornblower, Miller, Garrison and Potter.

THEATERS

ORPHIUM

Patrons of the Orphium theater will enjoy the opportunity of seeing their new favorite, Gloria Swanson, recently discovered Triangle star, in her latest vehicle, "Everywoman's Husband." This picture will be shown on Monday, night, Nov. 25, and gives the heroine of "Her Decision," "Station Content" and "You Can't Believe Everything," a chance to add to her movie laurels.

BIJOU.

Ever find what you thought was a pearl only to have a jeweler say it wasn't worth his time looking at it? You know you have. Well, you felt and looked just like Mae Marsh does in a scene of her latest Goldwyn Picture, "Money Mad," which comes to the Bijou theater Monday, Nov. 25.

XMAS BOXES SENT
NOW NUMBER 140

So far over 140 Christmas boxes have been mailed from Xenia to the Greene county boys overseas, and within the next week, it is expected that many more of the little parcels, packed with many little tokens of love from the folks back home, will find their way out of this city to Greene county soldiers across the seas.

It has been estimated that there are about 550 Greene countians overseas.

ANOTHER INCREASE OF WAGES GRANTED

Washington, Nov. 22.—Increased wages were awarded employees of the Cincinnati, Milford and Loveland Traction company of Cincinnati by the National War Labor Board today.

Motormen and conductors will receive 38 cents per hour the first three months; 40 cents the next three months, and 42 cents thereafter.

All other employees are to receive not less than 42 cents per hour for not more than a ten-hour day. Existing working conditions and differentials paid for special services, shall be continued.

The award is retroactive to Sept. 1, 1918. The company is allowed until Feb. 1, 1919, to make back payments. Differences may be placed before the board at intervals of six months, for adjustment.

PAY TRIBUTE TO ALLIES.

Rome, Nov. 22.—(Delayed)—Premier Orlando in an address before the Chamber of Deputies, paid tribute to allies for assisting Italy in the hour of her greatest danger, particularly the United States. This aid, he said, "has not a counterpart in history."

CEDARVILLE

Mrs. Robert Bird, who spent a week visiting friends at Oxford and College Corner, returned home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. A. G. Evelith of Black Lick, Pa., came Wednesday morning and is the guest of friends here. She will go from here to Kentucky, where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Robert R. Townsley delightfully entertained the members of the Home Culture Club Thursday afternoon. There were a number of invited guests. A delicious two course lunch was served. The guests were entertained throughout the afternoon by music of a "Cheney" talking machine.

A number of Cedarville ladies attended the Presbyterial of the missionary societies of this Presbytery, which was held in Xenia Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawrence and son, of Springfield, were week end visitors of Mrs. Lawrence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Grindle.

Mr. Perle Huffman and Miss Alice Hixon were married Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Rev. J. W. Patton. Miss Hixon's pastor. There were no attendants.

Sheep Best Farm Fertilizers.

Sheep produce the most valuable of all farm fertilizers. Their sharp hoofs work this well into the soil. This quality has earned for sheep the title of "Golden Hoof." In England land which during Queen Elizabeth's reign produced only six bushels of wheat per acre has been made to yield 30 bushels at present, simply by pasturing the land to sheep.

DOESN'T NEED ANY LAXATIVES NOW

Mr. Becker says life is a joy, without constipation or stomach trouble.

"I had catarrh of the stomach and head for three years. My stomach was so bad that every time I ate anything sweet, such as fruit or pastry, the burning hot water would run out of my mouth. I had to take a laxative every night."

"Since taking Milks Emulsion, my bowels move regularly. I have now taken ten bottles and have gained 10½ pounds. All my friends remark how fine I am looking, and it seems a pleasure to live again, without stomach trouble."—Bert Becker, Miami, Ohio.

Physicians usually make slaves out of their users, and weaken the bowels instead of correcting them. Stomach trouble in many cases is directly due to constipation.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of asthma, chronic bronchitis and tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

Seven a day for seven days. Then take one after each meal until the supply is exhausted.

Then if your nervousness is not gone, if you do not feel twice as strong and energetic as before, if your sluggish disposition has not been changed to a vigorous active one, take back the empty package to Sayre & Hemphill and your money will be returned.

No matter what excesses, worry—overwork—too much tobacco or alcohol have weakened your body and wrecked your nervous system, anywhere is authorized to refund your money on request if Bio-feron, the mighty upbuilder of blood, muscle and brain does not do just what is claimed for it.

Note to Physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feron. It is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin, Calcium Glycero-phosphate, Iron Peptonate, Manganese Peptonate, Ext. Nux Vomica, Food, Gelatin, Phenolphthalein, Oleoresin Capsicum, Kola. adv

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO THE MEMORY OF SOLDIER STUDENT

Faculty and students of Xenia Theological Seminary, paid tribute, last night, to the memory of "Tom" Little, soldier student of the seminary, who gave his life for freedom and democracy, in the Argonne region in France, October 1.

The services were simple, but tenderest love and highest regard for the youth who gave up his theological training at the end of two years, to enlist and fight under the flag of his country, and finally to make the supreme sacrifice, was expressed by all those who took part in the memorial ceremony.

Dr. Joseph Kyle, president of the seminary, presided, and the program opened with a song. Dr. Kyle then spoke very briefly and presented the speakers. W. P. McIntyre, who had been in Tarkio college one year with Mr. Little, spoke briefly of their associations there. Kenneth McKenzie, who had been an associate of Mr. Little in the seminary for one year spoke briefly, and he was followed by Dr. J. E. Wishart of the seminary faculty, who represented the faculty and made a five minute talk. Dr. Kyle then read several letters from friends of Mr. Little. The Rev. C. G. Lanan, of Findlay, and the Rev. Claire Hawthorne of Earlham, Ia., both of whom had been classmates of Mr. Little at the seminary, wrote letters in which their associations together at the Xenia school were set forth. A letter written by Dr. J. A. Thompson, president of Tarkio College, highly commended the good work of Mr. Little while he was a student at that school, and spoke highly of his sturdiness of character.

When Dr. Kyle had completed the reading of the letters, prayer was offered by Dr. A. W. Jamieson. The chapel was then darkened, and a stereopticon picture of Mr. Little was flashed upon a canvas. At the same moment, the sadly beautiful notes of "taps" were sounded on their bugles, by two boy musicians from the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home.

William Thomas Little, whose home was at Pawnee City, Neb., had completed his second year at Xenia Seminary when the trouble with Mexico arose. When the troops were being mobilized to go to the border, he enlisted with Company I of the old Third Ohio regiment in this city, under Captain D. G. Younkin. He went to the border, and later to France with his regiment. He died in the "line of duty" October 1. Further than this, nothing is known regarding the end, but Dr. Kyle has written to his captain in an effort to learn something of the manner in which the brave had met his death. Little was the first theological student in this country, to enlist since the outbreak of the recent difficulty.

MOTORAIDS

The radiator "blanket" in winter should be a radiator or hood covering, or both. Dealers say the only anti-freeze solution to use is alcohol or glycerine or a combination of the two. Experimenting with alleged prepared anti-freeze solutions is dangerous. Kerosene is not a good thing to use.

If you wish to prove the latter fact to yourself, cut a short length of garden hose, stop either end with corks after you have filled it with kerosene. Let this stand for two weeks, then pour the kerosene out and examine the interior. It will have the same effect on the radiator hose connections. Don't use calcium chloride either.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE APPROVES WORK OF SUPT. PATTERSON

The committee of one hundred citizens, named under authority of the Xenia Business Men's Association at the request of Superintendent of Schools John R. Patterson, to investigate the financial condition of the Xenia City schools, met Friday evening at the Business Association rooms to hear the report of a select committee, composed of Dr. Jesse Johnson, J. W. Santmyer and A. E. Faulkner. This committee presented a carefully prepared report, which indicated a very thorough investigation of the subject.

The entire tone of the report was commendatory of Superintendent Patterson, and it also presented suggestions for the relief of the financial conditions that exist.

It was recommended that the Business Men's Association and the school board jointly ask the people to grant an additional tax levy by vote at the general election in November, 1919, or at earlier date if new legislation is passed prior to that time, permitting such an election.

It was also recommended that the city sinking fund board reduce its levy, if possible, with a view to providing more funds for the schools, and finally, if the schools are still short of funds, it was recommended that bonds be issued to cover the shortage. Only as a last resort, and after all other means of financing the schools have failed, it was recommended that the certain school work, other than the vocational training department, be reduced.

The report also contains figures showing a large increase in school attendance above the sixth grade, that has been brought about largely by the introduction of vocational training and the Junior High School.

The report was taken up by sections and was adopted by unanimous vote of the large committee.

At a later time, the report will be published in full.

Officers of the Business Men's Association, who were present, stated that the question of financing the schools would be kept before the people by the appointment of a permanent school committee, which will be ready at all times to confer with Superintendent Patterson.

At the request of City Manager Riddle and City Commissioner Thorb Charters, a like committee will be named to confer with the city authorities with a view of getting problems faced by the city before the citizens of Xenia.

Our Watch on the Rhine

ON GERMAN SOIL, surrounded by beaten but sullen enemies, some of the boys from this county are keeping "The Watch on the Rhine" in the sacred names of Liberty and Equality.

Over here, we are planning to give thanks for the victory won, doubly thankful that so comparatively few of our sons and brothers gave up their lives. They all offered the sacrifice, and they deserve more than passing gratitude.

Now, shall we put our thankfulness into practical form? Shall we show that we appreciate and are thankful for the spirit and efforts of our soldiers?

Then let us make our Thanksgiving week also our

VICTORY WEEK

Resolve that this week shall show our own county's boys in war service that we have not forgotten them as they secure forever the fruits of victory.

Support them well until they return. Lend to our Government the means to feed and clothe and bring them home.

Many soldiers have gone from this county. To maintain them for the rest of 1918 will cost money. To show these boys the commendation of the people at home, we are asked to buy War Savings Stamps.

Is it a hard thing to do—to lend our money to our victorious government, at a good rate of interest (4.27 per cent) on non-taxable, absolutely safe securities, the World's Best Investment?

Then make yourself responsible for your share, and more.

PUBLIC SALES

Have your sale announced FREE in this column early, so that you may claim your date and others will stay off of it. These ads are run every day and are graded with the large display advertising. We also furnish sale bills without charge. Let us tell you about it.

PUBLIC SALE advertising in the Gazette and Republican bring the crowds. In the days of automobiles, the farmer has no time to stop along the road to read sale bills. He is coming to depend upon these papers to notify him of the sale dates and articles to be offered for sale. It is the buyer from a distance who sees your ad in this paper, who jumps into his auto and hustles to your sale, who pays what your stuff is worth. Your neighbor no longer can stand around and pick off what he needs at absurd prices, as he does when you have not properly advertised, and gotten a good crowd. Use "The Gazette and Republican" if you want the work of 50 or 100 signs for $1. Don't try to save on your advertising.

SPIRIT OF FREE PEOPLE DOES NOT EXIST IN GERMANY

BY J. W. T. MASON

New York, Nov. 23.—The failure of the German revolutionists to engage in exuberant celebrations of their newly won popular rights continues its suspicious manifestation of sullen resentfulness against the democratic nations of the world.

The Germans are not preparing to enter the peace conference as the representatives of a nation that has been redeemed from the mediaeval blight of the Hohenzollern rule. On the contrary, Germany is following a course of Democratic inaction that will inevitably lead to her future isolation among the free nations, unless a change of spirit overtakes the present attitude of the German people.

Germany is now a defeated nation, but if the democratic heaven had worked its way through the nation, the people would not even in defeat display this gruesome silence in the presence of human liberties that never before have been theirs. The Germans exhibit every evidence of already beginning to plot for revenge. Their retirement from France and Belgium has been marked by final cruelties furtively perpetrated on the inhabitants. It is impossible also to overlook the fact that some tie, stronger than the neutral antipathy between democracy and reaction, is holding together in these revolutionary days, German ultra-radicals and extreme conservatives.

This tie is the desire of all Germans for revenge. That is the dominant trait in the German character. It would not be as if a spirit of true democracy was in possession of Germany. What the future German democracy will be like the world has yet to know. It is certain that it will be different in many respects from American democracy. It will probably gravitate toward a natural intimacy with the more orientally tinged democracy of Russia.

Before America entered the war it was a favorite threat by Germans in Berlin that if the United States brought about Germany's defeat, the German people would turn to the east and make themselves the leaders of a future alliance with Russia and the Orient. This method of revenge must be well looked to at the peace conference. It can be blocked only by the most intimate relations being permanently established among the western democracies.

CITY COMMISSION PROPOSES TO PUSH THE AWNING CASE

At a special meeting of the city commission, plans were made to push to an early decision the H. E. Schmidt awning injunction suit.

A resolution was adopted by the commission instructing City Solicitor Joseph Finney to secure legal assistance in the case, and he was also instructed to make every effort to have the case brought up for an early hearing.

M'ADOO RESIGNS AS MEMBER OF CABINET OF PRESIDENT WILSON

Washington, Nov. 23.—William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, director general of railroads and often discussed as one of the presidential possibilities of 1920, has resigned his office to return to private business.

President Wilson has accepted his resignation. Mr. McAdoo will give up the treasury portfolio as soon as a successor has been selected. He wished to lay down his work as director general of railroads by January 1, but will remain if the President has not then chosen a successor.

Upon the new secretary of treasury, whoever he may be, will devolve the task of financing the nation through the transition period of war to peace, which probably will include at least two more Liberty loans and possibly further revision of the system of war taxation.

Letters between President Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, made public with the announcement of the resignation, give Mr. McAdoo's reasons for leaving the cabinet solely as a necessity for replenishing his personal fortune and express the President's deep regret at losing his son-in-law from his official family.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Secretary McAdoo himself and his closest friends stood pat today on his original declaration that he is leaving the treasury and railroad posts for just the reason he stated—and for that alone—to retrieve his fortune.

Resigning these two important posts, McAdoo declared late yesterday he needed to get to private life to make sufficient money for family needs. He pointed out that his energy was drained though his health has not fully broken.

There was a crop of rumors to "explain" his going. The first was that there had been a split with the President, as there was in the case of ex-Secretary of State Bryan and ex-Secretary of War Garrison. The President's letter of acceptance, and the statements of McAdoo's friends, however, did not bear out this theory as most authorities here saw it.

Secondly there was speculation that the presidency in 1920, had an influence in McAdoo's direction. Some thought McAdoo was skeptical of being a successful candidate in 1920, inasmuch as his continuance in office might be attended by political differences with the opposition party next year over railroads and appropriations.

On the other hand some believed that McAdoo felt that by avoiding these differences he could appear in 1920 as a government control advocate and be swept into office on that plank and his past record.

The general thought was, however, that McAdoo has quit public life as he said. There were those who believe this, were inclined to think McAdoo had drawn an advanced decision as to his personal prospects in 1920, from the Republican victory in the last election.

Coupled with speculation over what might have been the background reason for his sudden remarkable decision was talk of who would succeed McAdoo. Bernard Baruch, Carter Glass, of Virginia, and Assistant Secretary Laffingwell, were mentioned as prospects for the treasury post.

Baruch also was prominently discussed as railroad administrator while there was considerable thought that the railroads might be placed under Secretary of the Interior Lane.

McAdoo did not acquit his immediate associates of his purposes until late yesterday afternoon, a short time before he called in the press to announce his resignation and its acceptance. He gave out correspondence, which said the need for more money than a cabinet posts yields, influenced his going.

President Wilson answered that he regretfully accepted, at the same time highly praising the secretary's faithfulness and ability.

McAdoo did not claim to be broken in health though he did suggest he is much in need of a rest. It was recalled today that he spent some time on a western ranch recently because of throat trouble which was mainly superinduced by overwork.

President Wilson probably will name his successor before departing for Europe. Incidentally the question of permanent government control of railroads is bound to arise soon. McAdoo is known to have favored indefinite control of railroads if not actual ownership.

Now, railroad security holders are organizing to test out this situation and to force return of lines to private ownership. McAdoo, it was pointed out, would have had to take a definite stand soon on this problem.

Washington, November 23.—Reductions aggregating $500,000,000 in the yield from the new war revenue bill were made yesterday by the Senate Finance Committee in revising the measure downward to the $6,000,000,000 total for 1919.

The decrease was confined principally to the tobacco, luxury, semi-luxury and other special and excise schedules.

TWENTY MORE U-BOATS ARE SURRENDERED

London, November 23.—Twenty more German submarines were surrendered to Admiral Sir Reginald Tywhitt, off Harwich, yesterday.

This makes a total of 50 submarines thus far handed over. There would have been 21 surrendered but one sank during the night.

The correspondent of the Wireless Service, with the British naval forces, says that just before noon a cruiser came into sight, followed by the German submarines and a German transport. The transfer took place in the harbor on account of the heavy sea running.

The majority of the submarines were large, and nearly all were fitted with wireless equipment.

When the Germans arrived it was noticeable that the revolutionary element was decidedly present. Some of the officers had removed the Prussian eagle from their caps and replaced them with a sort of red badge that recognizes the authority of the Sailors' and Soldiers' Council.

There seemed to be little discipline among the lot. The men took very little notice of anything their officers said to them. One shouted: "No officer, no kaiser!"

LIEGE SOON TO BE BACK IN THE HANDS OF ALLIES

London, Nov. 23.—The last important city in Belgium to be repatriated, Liege, is expected soon to be in allied hands. The British were last reported within less than twenty miles of that place. They have passed through Namur.

(Liege is 45 miles east and south of Brussels and only 8 miles from the Prussian frontier. It is where the first great battle of the war was fought. General Leman defending it until his forts were reduced by the German howitzer.)

Occupation of Luxembourg is rapidly being completed by the Americans, who are nearing Rheinisch Prussia. The French already have a foothold in the latter provinces, at Sarrbruck and have entered Saargemund near the junction of the boundaries of Rheinisch Prussia and Rheinisch Bavaria.

The general line of the allied advance, according to latest advices is as follows:

Arendoneck, Molt, west of Diest, (Belgium); west of Ambresinbe, west of Andenne, line of the Ourthe, (British); Bastogne, French; west of Diekirch, east of Luxembourg (Americans); east of Thionville, Saarbrücken, Saargemund, Lutzelstein, Hochfelden, Obernau, Marckolsheim, line of the Rhine to the Swiss frontier (French).

PRESIDENT MAKES APPEARANCE ON THE STAGE AT ARMY SHOW

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Wilson made a stage appearance here last night in a farewell frolic by quartermaster department divisions.

When composer Sergeant Irving sang for the first time his new song, "Good-Bye France," the president came on the stage with a hand on the shoulder of a French and of an American sergeant. With the audience cheering wildly, President Wilson then grasped the hands of the two men, in one of the greatest finales of an impromptu show ever staged in the nation's capital.

PROCLAMATION IS ISSUED BY GOVERNOR

Columbus, Nov. 23.—"That peace has come to the world after a bitter period of frightful disorder, is cause enough for unrestrained gratitude to the giver of all good gifts," says Governor Cox in his Thanksgiving proclamation issued today.

"I respectfully urge that the people of the state observe the twenty-eighth day of November next as Thanksgiving day. Let us all cease from our ordinary labors, and in our homes, in public assembly, and in our places of worship, give thanks and offer prayer for continuance of blessings."

BELGIAN KING SEES DAYS OF HORROR END AND HE RETURNS TO HIS CAPITAL

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM.

King Albert of Belgium was forced for four long years to stand by and see the country of which he the head devastated by the Germans—to see the women and children violated and murdered. No one grieved more than the king. But thanks to the allies the Germans are beaten and the blood soaked fields of Belgium are now nearly free of the murderous German hordes. King Albert yesterday re-entered his capital amid the shouts of joy of his people.

ANOTHER WRONG DONE BY HUNS TO BE RIGHTED

BY ROBERT J. BENDER.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Freedom for Schleswig-Holstein, taken from Denmark by Germany in 1866, will be one of the specific demands of President Wilson at the peace table.

Answering the call of native Danes, both in Schleswig and in the United States, the president has assured these people that the wrong done them by Germany in 1866 shall be righted. The president's position was outlined in a letter made public today, replying to a petition recently presented by American citizens from Schleswig-Holstein, and others of Danish descent.

"I can but assure you that your appeal to America's sympathy and passion for justice will not go unheeded, for it founds itself wisely upon the rights of men to rule themselves, and to choose the manner in which that self rule shall be exercised," wrote the president.

"Not America alone, but all the people now quickened to a never sense of the value of justice, must join in the relief of a grievance whose continuance would traverse the principles for which more than a score of nations are fighting."

The president's position on Schleswig-Holstein was determined upon by him, with this country's entrance into the war. About a year ago, the United States was authorized to state semi-officially that the president was committed to four fundamental positions in the west:

Return of Alsace-Lorraine; destruction of the kaiser's power; the freedom of Schleswig-Holstein; the complete righting of the German wrong done Belgium and Northern France.

There was considerable talk today about the possibility of the president giving up his trip to Europe as a result of Secretary McAdoo's resignation from the treasury and railroad administration, and the general uncertainty of re-adjustment work within the government.

The president's friends, however, said he knew of McAdoo's intentions long ago and that there would be no alteration in his plans.

Announcement of the American peace delegation is expected immediately.

DEMobilIZATION AT CAMP SHERMAN BEGINS SATURDAY

Chillicothe, Ohio, Nov. 23.—Saturday morning at 8 o'clock 500 men, disappointed at not being able to get a crack at the Hun, but proud of the fact that they were on the job and ready to perform any duty assigned to them, assembled at the office of the Finance Department at Camp Sherman, received their pay and honorable discharge, then started for their respective homes, to return to civil life.

The movement was the beginning of the demobilization of the various units in camp. From day to day there will be further movements until 12,000 men, the first contingent ordered discharged by the War Department, have been returned to their homes.

Every soldier discharged will be allowed to retain one service coat and ornaments, one pair of breeches, one overcoat, one hat, one flannel shirt, one pair of leggings and all used stockings and underwear.

The clothing, shoes, etc., can be retained by the soldiers for a period of four months, when it must be returned to the camp Quartermasters' Department by mail under a franked label which will be furnished.

Action on the part of the government in allowing discharged soldiers to retain one complete outfit is for the purpose of lessening the immediate demand upon clothing establishments for civilian clothes, thus allowing them time to replenish their stocks.

GERMAN OFFICER SAYS AMERICA WAS DECIDING FACTOR

BY WEBB MILLER.

With the Americans Advancing Toward the Rhine, Nov. 23.—(10:50 A. M.)—The first and second divisions of the American army are within a few miles of Prussian territory.

If the advance continues at the present pace, they will set foot in Germany before this evening.

General Pershing has issued the following proclamation to the people of Luxembourg:

"After four years of violence, Luxembourg happily has been liberated. Your liberty was demanded of the invaders by the Americans and the allies as one of the conditions of the armistice.

"It becomes necessary now for the Americans to pass through Luxembourg and establish and maintain for a time a line of supply. The Americans come as friends and will conduct themselves strictly according to international law. Their presence will not be prolonged any longer than is strictly necessary. The functions of your government and institutions will not be interfered with; your life, occupations and personal welfare will not be troubled and will be respected.

"It is necessary that the American army shall utilize certain utilities, such as railways, telegraphs and telephones, for which you will be reimbursed, according to a just appraisal. It is presumed you will not allow any act of aggression against the Americans and will give no information nor aid in giving any information to our enemies."

With the American Armies Advancing Toward the Rhine, Nov. 18.—(Delayed)—Lieutenant Wilhelm Schmidt, and three other Germans remained in Boulogne to surrender military materials covering 20 acres.

On the arrival of the Americans, Schmidt walked into the road and waved a white flag. After checking up the lists, the colonel signed a receipt.

TWO THOUSAND PERISH IN A BIG EXPLOSION

London, Nov. 23.—An explosion of munition trains at the station of Hamont, in Belgium, Thursday caused casualties estimated to be between 1,500 and 2,000. One hundred and fifty dead already have been counted, according to a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam. The injured are being taken to Budel, Holland.

It is reported that the cause of the blast was a bonfire built by children, which spread to two German munition trains nearby.

The destruction in the vicinity, the dispatch adds, was enormous. Assistance is being sent to the stricken region from all directions. Dutch military aid has been sent across the border.

The trains were standing at the station at Hamont when the explosion occurred and the entire region was soon a sea of fire. Neighboring houses collapsed, burying their occupants. Three German ambulance trains caught fire and one was destroyed, 18 of the occupants being burned to death.

Most of the victims were German soldiers, who had been plundering the trains. A few Dutch soldiers also were killed.

MAY SUE GOVERNMENT.

New York, Nov. 23.—Suit against the government is planned by Clarence H. Mackey, president of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, if a merger of the Company and Western Union, is planned, he announced today.

AMERICAN MANUFACTURERS ARE IN FAVOR OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

New York, Nov. 23.—American manufacturers are heartily in favor of the proposed league of nations for the future war in life and property.

But according to President Stephen Mason, of the manufacturers they do not believe it practical for the nations of the world to enter into any general agreement relative to commercial intercourse.

President Mason today explained that in the production of manufactured products there is such a wide difference of conditions among the nations of the world there can be no "practical method of equaling so di-

BREWERS HELPED FINANCE GERMAN-AMERICAN ALLIANCE

Washington, Nov. 23.—Additional records from the private files of the United States Brewers' Association showing methods adopted in the organization's efforts to combat the prohibition movement were read into the record of the senate investigating committee by Major E. Lawry James, who is in charge of the inquiry.

These records dealt with the organization and financing of the National Association of Commerce and Labor, disbursement to the German-American Alliance, the employment of special writers for beer propaganda and a suggestion to Hugh F. Fox, secretary of the association, that the brewers offer a prize for the best essay on the solution of the "saloon problem" with the co-operation of newspapers as a medium of publicity. The Hearst papers were suggested in this connection.

MAY STRIKE AS A PROTEST AGAINST MOONEY EXECUTION

New York, Nov. 23.—New York machinists today discussed the proposition of going on strike in protest against the execution of "Tommy" Mooney, sentenced to death, Dec. 13, for alleged participation in the San Francisco preparedness parade bomb murders.

verse interests," in the field of world trade.

Speaking of the manufacturers viewpoint of the league of nations, President Mason said:

"If the proposed league of nations directly involves agreements in detail among the nations of the world relative to commercial intercourse, the practical nature of such an enormous task is seriously open to question.

"Any effort to involve the Americans in a trade future in an agreement of all nations from the American manufacturers' point of view is the same as committing our trade resources to a plan of world socialism which can only be regarded as an imaginary ideal."

SONG DEFINING

OLD HIT CALLED "IT'S NEVER TOO LATE TO BE SORRY."

A new song has just appeared which bids fair to rival many of the modern love tales. It is called "It's Never Too Late to Be Sorry," and is a tribute to women's loyalty, her resignation and her fidelity for the man she has chosen.

It's Never Too Late To
Be Sorry

Some of the lines of the song are quite poetical. One verse runs: "I watched a sweet rose droop and die for want of rain, and wondered why. The raindrops when at last they came could not restore its bloom again. You're like the rose; I'm like the rain—you wanted me and called in vain." And then follows the music which seems to be really catchy:

The various photographs and music rolls are hurrying the song out as a midwinter novelty, which the orchestra are using the melody both as a one-step and waltz. Adv.

The Westminster Guild will hold their thanksgiving Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Arthur Perrill. The assistant hostesses are Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Geo. Baldwin.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have
Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

YELLOW SPRINGS
AND MIAMI TOWNSHIP
ARE OVER THE TOP

Yellow Springs and Miami township have exceeded their quota in United War Work Campaign.

Subscriptions received so far, not including the contributions of the schools, have reached $3,301.25. This is divided as follows: Yellow Springs $2,088; Miami township, west, $837; Miami township, east, $376.25. Miami township east, workers say that their territory was encroached by Clark county, thus lessening the sum which would have been derived from that district.

The quota of Yellow Springs and Miami township was $3,100.

FUNERAL SERVICES
FOR MRS. B. HUNT

Funeral services for Mrs. Bowman Hunt were held at the home on Trumbull street, Friday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. William Enzer and the Rev. James Waterspoon of Dayton. Rev. Enzer sang "O My Father," and Mrs. H. E. Lane rendered "I'll Go Where You Want Me to Go, Dear Lord," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

Burial was made in Woodland cemetery. Brief committal service was held at the grave.

The Rev. Clarence A. Young, of Boston, Mass., is visiting relatives in this county.

Arthur Beal, of near Goes, is in Columbus, for several days on business.

PEPSINCO

Stomach Trouble Can Be Cured!

Thousands upon thousands say that Pepsinco is the only thing that helped their stomach. Many remedies gave temporary relief, but with Pepsinco the help was so different. It was lasting. Pepsinco did its work thoroughly. In many cases a few days' treatment was all that was necessary. The pain left. It is really surprising how many druggists not only sell and recommend Pepsinco, but take it themselves. They have so many customers tell of the good it has done them, that it is hard to resist the temptation to take it themselves. A Druggist in Indiana says he sells more Pepsinco than all the other stomach remedies put together.

BIG INCREASE
IN THEIR PAY

Washington, Nov. 23.—Trainmen of the Cincinnati Traction Company have been awarded an increase of 43 cents per hour the first three months; 46 cents the next nine months, and 48 cents thereafter, by the war labor board.

Existing working conditions and differentials paid for special service shall be continued.

All employees shall receive not less than 42 1-2 cents per hour, for not more than a ten hour day. Women of the company will be allowed until doing the same work as men shall receive equal pay.

FORTIETH ANNUAL
SESSION OF WOMAN'S
SOCIETY IS HELD

The Women's Missionary society of Xenia Presbytery held its 40th annual convention in the First United Presbyterian Church, this city, on Thursday, with Miss Lulu Henderson of Cedarville, presiding.

Mrs. D. D. Dodds, of Xenia, conducted opening devotionals. The adoption of a new constitution was one important item of business.

The treasurer reported over $4,400 gain during the year. A thankoffering of $1,662 was collected in the afternoon. A shower of $114 was given to buy fruits and jellies for hospitals, old ladies and orphans' homes under the church's care.

Mrs. George Moore of this city has been the efficient treasurer of the Presbytery for twenty-nine years. As an appreciation of her loving service, the president, in behalf of the society, presented her with a reading lamp and stand, a comfortable rocker, and a Victrola record. Mrs. Moore, very much surprised, thanked the ladies in her pleasing manner.

An expression of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Sarah Reid of Springfield, who has been confined to hospital for weeks.

TYPHOID FEVER
CLAIMS ANOTHER
VICTIM IN FAMILY

Typhoid fever claimed a second victim in the same family, when Mrs. Flora E. Johnson, wife of Marion Johnson of 625 West Second street, died at the Espey hospital at 12:15 Friday afternoon. Her 13 year-old daughter, Helen, died of the same malady two weeks ago Friday, and her death which occurred in the same hospital, had a depressing effect upon her mother, and lessened her chances for recovery.

Mrs. Johnson was 46 years of age and leaves six children: William, Hollie and James Johnson, and three sons by a previous marriage, Fred, Coell and Leo Hedrick of New Vienna, who were with their mother when she died. The body is at the office of J. H. Naely, the undertaker, on Green street.

Friends may call at the undertaker's office between 6:30 and 8:30 Saturday evening. The body will be taken to New Vienna for interment, and the funeral will be held there on Sunday afternoon.

O. S. AND S. O. HOME

A hunting party composed of Messrs O. T. Sheets, I. L. Anger, Charles Breich, T. B. Ferguson, W. T. Lewis, went in the form of Isiah Mason, near Daytonville Saturday afternoon and bagged 8 rabbits as follows: Lewis, 4; Anger 2; Sheets, 1.

Saves the Ohio Chronicle: "Mr. John Dellinger left last Saturday morning to accept a position as fireman under Chief Engineer Dunn at the Xenia Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home. A recent letter from him to Henry Harford tells him that he is well pleased with his position and surroundings."

Kenneth Lawrence and Paul Erick, who were the only members of the band who secured the "fit."

Mrs. Pamela Bannock, household manager, left Saturday for a week's vacation. Mrs. Ghorman, who has charge of the milk room, is supplying.

Home residents saw the second official war film, "America's Answer," shown at the chapel last Friday night. The film was presented by Charles S. Hart, a former pupil, who is director of the U. S. Department of Film Distribution, New York. The pictures showed the colossal preparation of our country in prosecuting the Great World War on a scale such as never dreamed of by any nation in the history of the world.

The cementing department made and put on three new doors for the old industrial building.

Miss Margaret Hays, ex-nuptial, is at Moonville Springs, near Delaware, O., taking the rest cure.

HOW A SALESMAN SUFFERED
R. J. Porter, Sterling, Col., writes: "I suffered with a painful, weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, and the pain when I straightened up was awful. BALANCE NEEDED
TO PUT FUND OVER
DIMINISHES SLOWLY

Just $251.27 more added to subscriptions for the United War Work, will put Xenia city in the list of the communities which have contributed their quota for this cause.

Xenia's share in the county's general quota was fixed at $12,500, and while the response to the call has been spontaneous and generous from nearly every quarter there are dozens of people in the city who have not contributed their share.

The United War Work Committee would like to have Xenia exceed her quota, and while it is working to put the city "over the top," it is hoped that there will be a wide margin on the other side of the top, represented by increased subscriptions from those who are able to give more than they have contributed.

What is said below by worth-while men—Bankers and Live-stock Experts—is said about Results, not Prospects

"Passed by the Capital Issues Committee as not incompatible with the national interests, but without approval of legality, validity, worth or security. Opinion No. A-434."

J. J. Logan, President of The United States Trust & Savings Bank, of Jacksonville, Fla., says:

"When one farm wins the President's cup and two other important cups, bronze medal and seventeen ribbons at the Florida State Fair, we think it is time for his friends to offer congratulations.

I had been over your farm before the Fair opened and I knew you would make an excellent showing and give any of your competitors a stiff battle, but I believe that you have made bigger winnings than any individual or any farm has ever made at any Fair held in this State.

As one of the members of the Executive Committee of the State Fair, I want to say that I think you are entitled to the victory because you have done such a very great deal to develop the hog and cattle industry in this State and your good example will bear fruit year after year.

At the present rate of progress, Florida is going to be the biggest hog and cattle State in the Union, and I predict that when this time comes, you will still be winning cups and ribbons."

H. B. Minium, for Eleven Years State Superintendent of Armour & Co., with Headquarters at Jacksonville, Fla., says:

"There has been such marked improvement all around since I was down there one year ago that I would hardly have recognized the place. I feel that you have an opportunity of making a great success in farming and live stock raising and that your success in your Clay County venture will mean more to the general development of farming and live stock raising in Florida than any other single factor. I regard your farms as a sort of demonstration farms, showing what can be done in Florida in the way of general farming and live stock raising, and, with your permission, I am going to encourage as many of our Florida farmers and stock raisers as possible, as well as prospective investors, to visit your farms and see for themselves just what can be done."

Bion H. Barnett, President of The Barnett National Bank, of Jacksonville, Fla., says:

"Please accept my heartiest congratulations on the splendid exhibit of cattle and hogs made by you at the Florida State Fair, and the success achieved in winning the President's Cup and other valuable trophies. My personal inspection of your farms has shown me that you were entitled to the victory because the exhibit at the State Fair is truly representative of the cattle and hogs on the farms.

I feel that you are entitled to a word of credit, and as we are deeply interested in the progress of the State, I feel it a duty to send you a word of congratulation."

To pay the 7% to the Preferred Stockholders requires an earning of only $2.00 an acre and to pay the 7% to both the PREFERRED and the COMMON STOCKHOLDERS requires an earning of only $3.00 an acre; and the man who THINKS will understand what this PARTICIPATING feature means.

There are one hundred good farmers in every county in Ohio who can take this fertile 14,000 acre farm, with the long pasture season (practically eleven months), the ability of the farm to produce good corn and cheap ensilage and other forage crops with which to feed Cattle, Hogs and Sheep, and earn $10.00 an acre and not regard that as the maximum by any manner of means.

There is one sure way to share in the profits of the most tremendous Live Stock development that has ever taken place in this country and which is going on today in the South, and that is to buy a PARTICIPATING PREFERRED STOCK, backed by Land, Cattle, Hogs and Sheep. Most of the WALKILL PREFERRED STOCK has been sold. If you are interested, write today.

It will be a glorious Thanksgiving.

It is time to sing the doxology with fervor.

This war has been fatal to autocratic dynasties.

It is a solemn hour. God is moving in human events.

Nothing so became William Hohenzollern as abdication.

And Christmas once more will be the gladdest holiday it should be.

Ferdinand Foch stands peer to all the great military captains of history.

William II of Germany should go down in history as William the Accursed.

After the darkness of war, the sunshine of peace; after the anguish unspeakable, the joy inexpressible.

Those who went down on the Lusitania—horrible crime it was that sent them to death—did not die in vain.

The world has witnessed its last great war. Let's have faith to believe in this courage to strive to make it true.

If there ever were godless dynasties
that deserved to be swept into oblivion
they were the houses of Hohenzollern
and Hapsburg.

Germany now drinks its bitter cup
of rue because it permitted itself
blindly to be mastered by militarists
and kaiserists.

The glory of America in this war is not alone its might, but its unselfish-
ness, its disinterestedness, its honor
and its chivalry.

Don't overlook the fact that it was
the irresistible sword arm of the embattled hosts of freemen which forced kaiserism to its knees.

Do not forget God in the hour of victory and jubilation. Offer a prayer of praise and thanksgiving to the Almighty for this supernal blessing.

When we remember how dark the war cloud loomed only a year ago, and
how bright the lining is today, our thanksgiving to God should be very fervent.

Ah, what a happy day that will be
"when Johnny comes marching home."
Nothing will be too good for him. We will make him proud with the honor we will feel for him.

Bleeding France will rise in new
glory upon the ruins of its appalling
sacrifices to the invader. America will take the sister republic gently by the hand and assist her to rehabilitate.

Germany stands today without a
real friend in all the world—the sor-riest spectacle ever witnessed. It is a fearful but a deserved penalty befalling it for its upholding of and connivance in the high crimes of kaiserism.

Peace, peace, blessed peace. Our beloved Gen. Grant said: "Although a soldier by profession, I have never felt
fondness for war, and I have never advocated it, except as a means of peace."

A prediction that came true to the letter 150 years after made, said Bar-
on Montesquieu, a French philosopher,
who died in Paris in 1755—"If Europe should ever be ruined it will be by
its warriors."

All hail the proposed "League of Nations to Enforce Peace," and let its preamble first be a strong one, when the Hun first invaded Belgium, he could have been hurled back with a
black eye, and many millions of lives
and many billions of dollars saved.

Glory, hallelujah, that we are soon to see the last of the "Honor Rolls" of our brave boys who "gave the last full
measure of devotion that government
of the people, by the people and for
the people shall not perish from the earth. It is for us, the living, to be dedicated to the work they so nobly
carried on."

"THE WIFE"

By JANE PHELPS

BRIAN REFUSES TO MAKE UP,
THOUGH RUTH BEGS
HIM TO.

CHAPTER XXVI.

In the midst of Ruth's misery there was projected the thought of her employer's kindness and thoughtfulness.
For the first time there crossed her mind something like a wish that Brian was more like him. Mandel was so dependable, and Brian so erratic. How she hated that crowd which were in her thoughts, represented by Mollie King and Claude Beckly. She blamed them for Brian's defection, for all his unstable ways,
instead of blaming Brian himself.

It was getting late. Where had Brian gone? Would he return that night, or was he so angry he would do as he had the night before, and remain out? Finally Ruth's sobs were quieted. She, too, began to get angry. If Brian were going to treat her like this, she would not be so careful in the future not to hurt him. She rose, took a hot bath, then went to bed. Hardly had she crept between the sheets when she heard his key in the door. She would pretend to be asleep. He could think then that she was as indifferent as he. So when he spoke, she pretended not to hear, even when he signed so deeply that she wanted to ask him what it meant. She hoped he was sighing because he was sorry they weren't good friends, but she wasn't going to risk another snub, so she kept her eyes closed.

The next morning she made up her mind to try to act as if nothing had happened. Brian had explained where he was the night she came home, and she knew that down in his heart he knew that she loved him, also that he knew her coming home in Mandel's car meant nothing. She never thought of doubting him. Neither that he might not accept her explanation in the same spirit.

"Hurry, Brian, breakfast is nearly ready," she called as she hurried into the kitchen, to see what Rachel had for breakfast.

When he sat down with her a few moments later, she saw that he had not recovered his good nature; that he was still grouchy. She sighed a little as she poured his coffee, and tried to get him to tell her what news was in the paper.

"You can read. Look for yourself,"
he gave her a part of the paper.

"Oh, isn't the war news dreadful?
Why, this article reads as if something might happen to drag us into it." Then after a minute: "Here's another one. All on our preparedness, rather unpreparedness. Why, Brian, think what it would mean to us if anything should happen. This country, I mean. We are 3,000 miles away. We couldn't get a large army across. It would be impossible."

"Nothing is impossible to Uncle Sam," he tone gruff.

"But haven't ships, means of transportation, and we have no drilled soldiers ready to fight, like the other countries."

"It's a disgrace that we haven't,"
he went on eating. Ruth was almost discouraged, trying to make up with him. Even talking of the war in which he had always been so interested, would not make him pleasant to her. He was more hurt than she knew.

"How long are those Canadian soldiers going to be here?" she tried again.

"I haven't asked them."

It was awfully discouraging. Her lip quivered as she took the cup he held out to her and refilled it. Even the fact, trivial as it was, that he always said something about the coffee being good and this morning said nothing, hurt her.

"Do be nice, Brian," she said as she passed back the cup. I shall be unhappy all day if you are not."

"I see no reason why I should be nice to you. Mandel will probably see that you are taken care of."

"Oh, Brian, you silly boy!" she realized that he was still thinking of Mandel's courtesy of the day before.

"I'm sorry I let him send me home,
dear. But I really was ill. He has inferred to many times before, but I always refused. You made me ill by staying out all night!" she said more heatedly. "It was your fault that I felt so badly I was willing to accept the favor, not mine!"

"That's right! Try and save your own face by throwing the blame on someone else. Ride in Mandel's cars all you want to! I knew it would come to that when you went to work for him. I'm not a fool, neither am I blind."

"Oh, Brian!" Ruth said again as he flung from the table, and started for the hall. "Aren't you going to kiss me, dear? You haven't, you know, since I came home."

"Mandel has most likely made up my deficiencies."

The door closed after him upon the last word. Ruth laid her head on the table and cried as if her heart would break. Mammy Rachel could give her no comfort. She was sure she had lost Brian, and could not feel herself at fault. She telephoned the shop she

Ross Tp. Branch ..... 910.75
Osborn Branch ..... 2,781.92
Xenia City and Xenia Tp. .... $15,052.33

Total ..... $32,185.32
Of the above amounts twenty-five per cent was retained by the branches in which the money was collected and the balance credited to the National Red Cross.

The table below refers to the Xenia branch of the Greene county chapter and covers a period from December 11, 1917 to November 20, 1918. In the report will be found a number of items of money reported by branches outside of the Xenia branch. It will be noted that all money received from the outside branches was either forwarded to the National association or returned to the branches from which it came as provided by the rules of the association. The report in short merely covers what money passed through the chapter treasury. As all branches except Xenia have their own treasurers and retain their own funds no account of their expenditures or receipts is contained in the report which follows:

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO THE MEMORY OF SOLDIER STUDENT

Faculty and students of Xenia Theological Seminary, paid tribute, last night, to the memory of "Tom" Little, soldier student of the seminary, who gave his life for freedom and

democracy, in the Argonne region in France, October 1.

The services were simple, but tenderest love and highest regard for the youth who gave up his theological training at the end of two years, to enlist and fight under the flag of his country, and finally to make the supreme sacrifice, was expressed by all those who took part in the memorial ceremony.

Dr. Joseph Kyle, president of the seminary, presided, and the program opened with a song. Dr. Kyle then spoke very briefly and presented the speakers. W. P. McIntyre, who had been in Tarkio college one year with Mr. Little, spoke briefly of their associations there. Kenneth McKenzie, who had been an associate of Mr. Little in the seminary for one year spoke briefly, and he was followed by Dr. J. E. Wishart of the seminary faculty, who represented the faculty and made a five minute talk. Dr. Kyle then read several letters from friends of Mr. Little. The Rev. C. G. Lunan, of Findlay, and the Rev. Claire Hawthorne of Earlham, Ia., both of whom had been classmates of Mr. Little at the seminary, wrote letters in which their associations together at the Xenia school were set forth. A letter written by Dr. J. A. Thompson, president of Tarkio College, highly commended the good work of Mr. Little while he was a student at that school, and spoke highly of his sturdiness of character.

When Dr. Kyle had completed the reading of the letters, prayer was offered by Dr. A. W. Jamieson. The chapel was then darkened, and a stereopticon picture of Mr. Little was flashed upon a canvas. At the same moment, the sadly beautiful notes of "Taps" were sounded on their bugles, by two boy musicians from the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home.

William Thomas Little, whose home was at Pawnee City, Neb., had completed his second year at Xenia Seminary when the trouble with Mexico arose. When the troops were being mobilized to go to the border, he enlisted with Company I, of the old Third Ohio regiment in this city, under Captain D. G. Youngkin. He went to the border, and later to France with his regiment. He died in the "line of duty," October 1. Further than this, nothing is known regarding the end, but Dr. Kyle has written to his captain in an effort to learn something of the manner in which the brave lad met his death. Little was the first theological student in this country, to enlist since the outbreak of the recent difficulty.

MOTOR AIDS

The radiator "blanket" in winter should be a radiator or hood covering, or both. Dealers say the only anti-freeze solution to use is alcohol or glycerine or a combination of the two. Experimenting with alleged prepared anti-freeze solutions is dangerous. Kerosene is not a good thing to use.

If you wish to prove the latter fact to yourself, cut a short length of garden hose, stop either end with corks after you have filled it with kerosene. Let this stand for two weeks, then pour the kerosene out and examine the interior. It will have the same effect on the radiator hose connections. Don't use calcium chloride either.

Don't put side curtains away when they are muddy and wet. When the top is covered with snow, sweep it off. When a motor is new the parts are tight, and naturally the added friction must be overcome by the expenditure of power. The owner of a new car, if he is observing, will find that a given throttling opening when the car is new will be too much when the motor has been worked in.

Cut Out the Fretting Habit.

It is not work, or even real anxiety, that makes the way hard and the daily burdens so heavy. It is life's ceaseless little frets—the things we might learn to eliminate if we would.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE APPROVES WORK OF SUPT. PATTERSON

The committee of one hundred citizens, named under authority of the Xenia Business Men's Association at the request of Superintendent of Schools John R. Patterson, to investigate the financial condition of the Xenia City schools, met Friday evening at the Business Association rooms to hear the report of a select committee, composed of Dr. Jesse Johnson, J. W. Santmyer and A. E. Faulkner. This committee presented a carefully prepared report, which indicated a very thorough investigation of the subject.

The entire tone of the report was commendatory of Superintendent Patterson, and it also presented suggestions for the relief of the financial conditions that exist.

It was recommended that the Business Men's Association and the school board jointly ask the people to grant an additional tax levy by vote at the general election in November, 1919, or at earlier date if new legislation is passed prior to that time, permitting such an election.

It was also recommended that the city sinking fund board reduce its levy, if possible, with a view to providing more funds for the schools, and finally, if the schools are still short of funds, it was recommended that bonds be issued to cover the shortage. Only as a last resort, and after all other means of financing the schools have failed, it was recommended that the certain school work, other than the vocational training department, be reduced.

The report also contains figures showing a large increase in school attendance above the sixth grade, that has been brought about largely by the introduction of vocational training and the Junior High School.

The report was taken up by sections and was adopted by unanimous vote of the large committee.

At a later time, the report will be published in full.

Officers of the Business Men's Association, who were present, stated that the question of financing the schools would be kept before the people by the appointment of a permanent school committee, which will be ready at all times to confer with Superintendent Patterson.

At the request of City Manager Riddle and City Commissioner Thorb Charters, a like committee will be named to confer with the city authorities with a view of getting problems faced by the city before the citizens of Xenia.

Our Watch on the Rhine

ON GERMAN SOIL, surrounded by beaten but sullen enemies, some of the boys from this county are keeping "The Watch on the Rhine" in the sacred names of Liberty and Equality.

Over here, we are planning to give thanks for the victory won, doubly thankful that so comparatively few of our sons and brothers gave up their lives. They all offered the sacrifice, and they deserve more than passing gratitude.

Now, shall we put our thankfulness into practical form? Shall we show that we appreciate and are thankful for the spirit and efforts of our soldiers?

Then let us make our Thanksgiving week also our

VICTORY WEEK

Resolve that this week shall show our own county's boys in war service that we have not forgotten them as they secure forever the fruits of victory.

Support them well until they return. Lend to our Government the means to feed and clothe and bring them home.

Many soldiers have gone from this county. To maintain them for the rest of 1918 will cost money. To show these boys the commendation of the people at home, we are asked to buy War Savings Stamps.

Is it a hard thing to do—to lend our money to our victorious government, at a good rate of interest (4.27 per cent) on non-taxable, absolutely safe securities, the World's Best Investment?

Then make yourself responsible for your share, and more.

SPIRIT OF FREE PEOPLE DOES NOT EXIST IN GERMANY

BY J. W. T. MASON

New York, Nov. 23.—The failure of the German revolutionists to engage in exuberant celebrations of their newly won popular rights continues its suspicious manifestation of sullen resentfulness against the democratic nations of the world.

The Germans are not preparing to enter the peace conference as the representatives of a nation that has been redeemed from the mediaeval blight of the Hohenzollern rule. On the contrary, Germany is following a course of Democratic inaction that will inevitably lead to her future isolation among the free nations, unless a charge of spirit overtakes the present attitude of the German people.

Germany is now a defeated nation, but if the democratic leaven had worked its way through the nation, the people would not even in defeat display this gruesome silence in the presence of human liberties that never before have been theirs. The Germans exhibit every evidence of already beginning to plot for revenge. Their retirement from France and Belgium has been marked by final cruelties further perpetrated on the inhabitants. It is impossible also to overlook the fact that some tie, stronger than the neutral antipathy between democracy and reaction, is holding together in these revolutionary days, German ultra-radicals and extreme conservatives.

This tie is the desire of all Germans for revenge. That is the dominant trait in the German character. It would not be as if a spirit of true democracy was in possession of Germany. What the future German democracy will be like the world has yet to know. It is certain that it will be different in many respects from American democracy. It will probably gravitate toward a natural intimacy with the more orientally tinged democracy of Russia.

Before America entered the war it was a favorite threat by Germans in Berlin that if the United States brought about Germany's defeat, the German people would turn to the east and make themselves the leaders of a future alliance with Russia and the Orient. This method of revenge must be well looked to at the peace conference. It can be blocked only by the most intimate relations being permanently established among the western democracies.

CITY COMMISSION PROPOSES TO PUSH THE AWNING CASE

At a special meeting of the city commission, plans were made to push to an early decision the H. E. Schmidt awning injunction suit.

A resolution was adopted by the commission instructing City Solicitor Joseph Finney to secure legal assistance in the case, and he was also instructed to make every effort to have the case brought up for an early hearing.

WAR DEPARTMENT HAS NO RECORD OF DEATH OF KUSSMAUL

No report of any mishap to Clyde J. Kussmaul has been received by the War Department, according to a telegram received yesterday by Clerk of the Courts, George W. Sheets, from Adjutant General Harris.

Mr. Sheets sought information from the war department concerning Mr. Kussmaul's reported death by a German aviator's bomb. The telegram he received said that a cable had been sent, and that Mr. Sheets would be advised if any further information was received.

GIVES A PARCEL SHOWER FOR SISTER

Miss Reva Walker entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of her sister, Mrs. Ernest Fries (Lora Walker) Friday evening. The house was decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums. Music and games furnished the amusement for the evening. One feature was, each guest was given some quilt blocks to sew together, and when they were finished were given to the bride to be made into a quilt. Mrs. Fries received many beautiful useful gifts. Twenty guests enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Walker. Delicious refreshments were served.

A 25 Cent Box Did More Good Than Two Doctors

This man's stomach was so bad he consulted two doctors as to what was necessary. They could not agree, so he followed a friend's advice and took Pepsinco.

The very first day he noticed an improvement. After a few days his food stopped hurting him. In a week's time he was feeling good. He took Pepsinco until he could sit down and eat what he wanted without distress.

Druggists sell lots of Pepsinco because it really does help the stomach. Ask your druggist for a small trial package and cure your stomach trouble.

Constipation

which is another word for congestion, the beginning of every serious disorder, and nearly every discomfort. Rid yourself of constipation and you will be free from all disease—as nearly as possible proof against infection.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS

act freely, but gently and comfortably, on the liver, stomach and bowels, cleansing, sweetening, toning, strengthening, so that a constipated condition will become impossible. Ordinary constipation "cures" are only laxatives that must be taken regularly, and that finally form a habit that is as dangerous as constipation itself. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are wholly vegetable; absolutely harmless, they form no habit.
